Legitimacy in Global Governance

Workshop, Toronto, March 26, 2019

Organized by the Legitimacy in Global Governance (LegGov) program at the Universities of Lund, Stockholm and Gothenburg, and the Munk School of Global Affairs at the University of Toronto

Venue: Boardroom, Munk School of Global Affairs, 315 Bloor Street

08.30-09.00: Coffee and welcome

09.00-10.45: Legitimation by International Organizations

Sarah von Billerbeck (University of Reading): '"Mirror, Mirror, on the Wall': Self-Legitimation by International Organizations"

Henning Schmidtke (Technical University of Munich): "Legitimation Narratives of International Organizations: Patterns and Explanations"

Catia Gregoratti (Lund University) and Nora Stappert (University of Copenhagen): "Future Talk as a Practice of Legitimation?"

Tobias Lenz (University of Göttingen): "Legitimacy and Legitimation in the Study of Regionalism: Towards a New Research Agenda"

10.45-11.15: Coffee break

11.15-13.00: The Politics of Legitimation and Delegitimation

Magdalena Bexell (Lund University), Anders Uhlin (Lund University), and Soetkin Verhaegen (Stockholm University): "Elite (De)Legitimation of Global Governance Institutions"

Martin Binder (University of Reading) and Monika Heupel (University of Bamberg): "The UN Security Council and the Politics of Legitimation in International Organizations"

Nicole Deitelhoff (University of Frankfurt): "Contesting International Institutions: Politics of Backlash or Struggles for Emancipation?"

Hans Agné (Stockholm University), Bart Bes (Lund University), Thomas Sommerer (Stockholm University), and Fariborz Zelli (Stockholm University): "Views from the Outside, Changes on the Inside? Non-Constituent Audiences and Global Governance Legitimacy"

13.00-14.00: Lunch

14.00-15.45: Elite and Public Opinion in Global Governance

Lisa Dellmuth (Stockholm University), Jan Aart Scholte (University of Gothenburg), Jonas Tallberg (Stockholm University), and Soetkin Verhaegen (Stockholm University): "Comparing Elite and Public Opinion on the Legitimacy of Global Governance"

Daniel Maliniak (College of William and Mary), Eric Parajon (College of William and Mary), and Ryan Powers (University of Georgia): "Epistemic Communities and Public Support for International Cooperation"

Christoph Mikulaschek (Harvard University): "Cueing Foreign Elite Consensus or Divisions: The Effect of Unanimity in International Organizations on Public Opinion"

Michael Tomz (Stanford University) and Dustin Tingley (Harvard University): "Effects of Naming and Shaming on Public Opinion toward Compliance with International Agreements"

15.45-16.15: Coffee Break

16.15-17.45: Organizational Legitimacy in Global Governance

Soetkin Verhaegen (Stockholm University), Jan Aart Scholte (University of Gothenburg), and Jonas Tallberg (Stockholm University): "Explaining Elite Perceptions of Legitimacy in Global Governance"

Hortense Jongen and Jan Aart Scholte (University of Gothenburg): "Exploring Legitimacy in Private Global Governance"

Naghmeh Nasiritousi and Hugo Faber (Stockholm University): "Stakeholder Perceptions of Legitimacy in Renewable Energy Governance"

18.30: Workshop Dinner

Participants

Karin Bäckstrand, Stockholm University

Michael Barnett, George Washington University

Steven Bernstein, University of Toronto

Magdalena Bexell, Lund University

Martin Binder, University of Reading

Nicole Deitelhoff, University of Frankfurt

Catia Gregoratti, Lund University

Monika Heupel, University of Bamberg

Hortense Jongen, University of Gothenburg

Tobias Lenz, University of Göttingen

Dan Maliniak, College of William and Mary

Christoph Mikulaschek, Harvard University

Naghmeh Nasiritousi, Stockholm University

Louis Pauly, University of Toronto

Henning Schmidtke, Technical University of Munich

Christina Schneider, University of California at San Diego

Jan Aart Scholte, University of Gothenburg

Thomas Sommerer, Stockholm University

Nora Stappert, University of Copenhagen

Jonas Tallberg, Stockholm University

Michael Tomz, Stanford University

Anders Uhlin, Lund University

Soetkin Verhaegen, Stockholm University

Lora Viola, Free University Berlin

Sarah von Billerbeck, University of Reading

Fariborz Zelli, Lund University

Michael Zürn, WZB Social Science Center Berlin