Publications

Journal articles, edited volumes, and monographs are the principal deliverables of the program.

Monographs, Edited Volumes, and Special Issues

Articles in International Peer-Review Journals

Chapters in Edited Volumes

Reports

Popular Science Publications

Söderbaum, Fredrik et al. 2016. Goda intentioner räcker inte för effektivt bistånd. Göteborgs-

Posten Debatt, 29 Juni 2016.

Papers in Progress or under Review

Agné, Hans. Democracy beyond the state: Why the concept is absent in positive IR, how to bring it there, and what benefits to expect from the move. Unpublished manuscript, Stockholm University, Stockholm, Sweden.

Agné, Hans. Democratism: Toward an explanatory approach to international politics. Journal article manuscript under review.

Beetz, Jan Pieter, and Bart J. Bes. Political executives or appointed mandarins? Two competing conceptualizations of the European Commission.

Bes, Bart J. Following the crowd or developing a thicker skin? Assessing the impact of Euroscepticism on the attitudes of Commission officials. Unpublished manuscript.

Bes, Bart J., Christina Rauh, and Martijn Schoonvelde. Preaching to the choir or whistling in the wind? Public communication of supra- and intergovernmental executives in times of EU politicization.

Shemer-Kunz, Yoav, and Bart J. Bes. MEPs’ attendance at their national parliament’s European Affairs Committee. Unpublished manuscript, prepared for special issue: Member State Parliaments and the European Challenge(s), edited by Diane Fromage and Kolja Raube.

Zelli, Fariborz, Harro van Asselt, and Ina Möller. 2016. Explaining the role of private institutions in complex global climate governance: the cases of geoengineering, REDD+, and

